

Cultural forum, CoBSH, organized declamation contest and a talk on “National Unity and Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel” on October 31, 2014

The College of Basic Sciences & Humanities of CCS HAU organized a series of events at the University level, to commemorate the 139th Birth Anniversary of Sardar Patel on 31.10.2014. On this occasion a declamation contest was organized in Hindi & English. Students of various sister colleges of the University actively participated in the event. A total of sixteen students participated in declamation contest. They highlighted how the various princely states of independent India were merged with the efforts of Sardar Patel to make a united and integrated nation. In the afternoon, a lecture on “National Unity and Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel” was delivered by Dr. Mahender Singh, Head Department of History, D.N. P.G. College, Hisar. The speakers underlined as to how Sardar Patel had championed the cause of Indian freedom for over 60 years of his socio-political career. Amongst the founding fathers of the Republic of India, he played a leading role as social leader in the country's struggle for independence and guided its integration into a united, independent nation. His frank diplomacy, backed with firm opinion christened him as the "Iron Man of India". Patel devoted his life for the unity of the Nation despite facing obstacles in his political life. Earlier the morning witnessed a display of colors in “Run for Unity” with active participation of the worthy Vice Chancellor Dr. K. S. Khokhar, officers, faculty and students of the University.
