

Teachers' Day Celebration (September 5, 2016)

Ch. Charan Singh Haryana Agricultural University celebrated Teachers' Day on 5th September, 2016 in the Auditorium of College of Basic Sciences & Humanities. Padamshri Dr. J. B. Chowdhury, Former Vice-Chancellor, CCSHAU was the Chief Guest on the occasion and Dr. K. P. Singh, the Vice-Chancellor of CCSHAU presided over the function. Dr. R.K. Jain, the Dean, COBSH welcomed the guests and thanked the Vice-Chancellor for giving him the honour to celebrate teachers' day in the College of Basic Sciences & Humanities. He also thanked Chief Guest for sparing his precious time to come to Hisar and grace the occasion. He further said that India is a country of unlimited brain, genetic diversity, various resources and manpower and I am sure with the due attention given to education, science and technology, India shall develop into an economically strong country, a leader in the world in the next two decades.

Dr. J. B. Chowdhury congratulated all the teachers on teachers' day and inspired the teachers to do their duties with utmost dedication and devotion. He also advised the students to respect and follow their teachers if they want to rise high in life. He further advised the students to be always sincere to their duties and emphasized that teachers should guide the students in such a way that student achieve their goals. Teacher should be the role model for the students, beacon of lights, guiding them through the journey of life.

Dr. K.P. Singh appreciated the work done by the teachers of the university and hoped that they will always be sincere in their duties. He further said that CCSHAU is internationally acclaimed university and all the credit goes to the teachers and scientists of the university. Words fail to express the relationship between teachers and students. Students should have full faith in their teachers as teachers do not impact for a year or two but for the life time. This influence persists beyond school, College and University

Dr. Ramesh Yadav, Member, BOM, CCSHAU also expressed his views on the occasion & expressed the importance of teachers-taught relationship.

Prize distribution function was followed by the cultural evening. Palak from COBSH presented 'Ganesh Stuti' mesmerising the audience. Sonali performed a fantabulous dance on national song 'Vande Mataram'. A skit 'Chanakya Niti' was really a source of inspiration for students. It compelled the audience to give a thought on the issue raised. Splendid performance of the students in Haryanvi dance enthralled all.

Quiz contest, slogan writing and declamation contest were held on 03.05.2016 and the prize winners were awarded by the Chief Guest. Monika from College of Veterinary Science was given the first prize in declamation (English) while Ravi from COBSH stood second. Kanika from COBSH received first prize in declamation (Hindi), Pooja Kundu from COBSH stood second. Team from the COBSH was the winner in quiz contest & team from COA was the first runner up. Dheeraj from COBSH stood first in slogan writing & Mamta from COBSH received the second prize.

The programme ended with vote of thanks from Dr. Manju Singh Tonk, President, Cultural Forum, COBSH.

